Edwards and proper course of the Democratic ship. The Democratic party of Florida is the only Democratic party division in this country which hasn't a vestige of a platform and has no established declaration of policy. The only semblance of organization which it affords is an executive committee, which is rarely heard of and which doesn't maintain an active participation in party affairs except during the progress of a primary campaign. At present the Democratic party of Florida is merely a convenience for office-seekers and Democracy in Florida is only a cloak for the most disgraceful and playboyish variety of personal and "peanut" politics.

Of course, we want a State Democratic convention. The News, by the way, suggests that "it might be interesting to hear from the chairman of the State Executive Committee on this important subject."

Let's see—who is the chairman of the State Executive Committee? It is such a useless, dormant body and we hear of it so infrequently, that we must confess we have forgotten all about it.—Tampa Tribune.

FLORIDA WOMAN BUYS AEROPLANE

TO TAKE LESSONS AND BECOME FIRST-CLASS AVIATOR.

This is the First Case on Record
Where a Woman Has Bought a Flying Machine.

HAMMONDSPOUT, N. Y., Nov. 6.—A contract has just been closed here by Mrs. H. A. Arnold of Florida, whereby she becomes the owner of an aeroplane of the Curtiss type, in which she intends to make flights.

Mrs. Arnold owns a magnificent country home near the East Coast of Florida, 150 miles from Jacksonville. The grounds and outlying country are admirably adapted to aviation. She is an enthusiast on the subject, and wishes to experiment in aviation.

Mrs. Arnold watched a flight by Herring in Indiana, and received then the first impetus to attempt experiments in the air. Some time ago she came to Hammondsport with the expectation of seeing an aeroplane in flight, but was disappointed. During the week the weather conditions were unfavorable for exhibitions.

The aeroplane purchased is the one used by Curtiss in Chicago and at the Hudson-Fulton celebration. It has a thirty-horse-power water-cooled engine and is equipped with the new type of four-blade propeller. The machine has been reassembled here and successfully used during the past week, by Charles K. Hamilton of New Britain, Conn.

Mrs. Arnold, who is touring the North in an automobile with servants, expects to attempt flights in Florida within a month. The machine, while primarily intended for one person, will carry a passenger as well as the aviator. It is the intention of Mrs. Arnold to begin by making short runs and gradually increasing the speed to running jumps.

This is the first purchase of an aeroplane by a woman in any part of the world, so far as known. Mrs. Arnold is a brunette, of slight build and weighs about ninety pounds.

Chas. C. Martin were approved as notaries.

R. N. Owens, I. J. Phinmon and L. H. Grimes, having complied with the law, were granted permits to carry a pistol, and A. W. Taylor's repeating rifle.

The report of Treasurer Matheson showed $28,486.92. In the several funds of the county.

The board then adjourned.

IN HOPELESS CONDITION.

J. W. Bennett Was Taken to Hospital
Late in the Evening.

From Sunday's Daily Sun:

J. W. Bennett, well-known here and who resides in the southern part of the city, was taken to the city hospital Saturday night in a most helpless condition.

For some time past he has been confined to his bed, but only within the past few days has his case become alarming and an operation decided upon. It is stated by the physicians in charge that his intestines have grown to his side, and that unless a successful operation can be performed his case is a hopeless one. Last night much fear was entertained that he would not live through the night.

Has Moved to City.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hall have removed from their farm near Alachua to this city, and will in future make this their home. They are pleasantly located in East Gainesville, where they are at home to their many friends.

Twelve hundred dollars was raised in Tampa last Tuesday by ladies of that city for the burning shed for the children's home.

CONGRESSMAN SCOTT ENDORSES CANNON

And By So Doing the Kansas Man Expects to Be Appointed Secretary of Agriculture

GARRETT, Kans., Nov. 6.—I came to Garrett to hear Congressman Charles F. Scott, representative of the Second Kansas District, explain to his constituents why he voted for the Payne-Aldrich bill.

From the press gallery in Washington I had many times heard Mr. Scott give his vote for the perpetuation of the Cannon-Aldrich ring rule. I had noticed that when the Speaker cracked his whip, Mr. Scott could be depended upon to vote "regular."

Of Mr. Scott it can be said that he is a "standpatter" in Washington and a "progressive" at home. In his speech he eulogized Speaker Cannon and portrayed him as a much-misrepresented and maligned man.

"My dear people," he said, dropping his voice to a prayer-like whisper, "I caution you to be on your guard. The Democratic newspapers and some of the Republican newspapers would have you think that the Speaker of the House was an autocrat, a czar, a man lacking in patriotism, who would actually like to prevent a member of Congress from representing his constituents."

Mr. Scott stepped nearer the audience, spread out both hands over the heads of the people, and an intense stillness settled upon the house. There was a suspicion of a choking sensation in the speaker's voice when he finally continued in the low prayerful tone:

"I am thinking," he said, of another great man who was painted as black as night—Abraham Lincoln."

Some in the audience were visibly affected. Others moved uneasily in their seats.

"Yes, Abraham Lincoln was maligned in his day," said Mr. Scott. "And there was another great man who was the target for slander, Garfield. And my good people, there was another to whom I want to call your attention. It was William McKinley."

As he closed the sentence the speaker's voice descended lower and lower, and finally dropped to nothing.

Some of the women auditors were plainly on the point of bursting into tears. Then Mr. Scott came to the rescue by throwing sentimentality to the wind, demanding almost fiercely:

"Do you suppose Mr. Cannon's constituents would return him to Congress session after session if he was a bad man?"

An old gentleman in the audience arose as if he intended to answer the question, when Congressman Scott beat him to it.

"Certainly not," thundered Mr. Scott, and the old man sat down.

"Now as to the tariff," said Mr. Scott. "Why did I sign that bill? Well, because it was the bill of the Republican party. The tariff bill has been greatly misrepresented. Even some of the Republican papers have not been guiltless. I marvel how the average American citizen can be fooled like he is being fooled. Why, all you have to do is to read the bill, like I did, and you will see for yourself that the revision was downward. That is why I voted for the Payne-Aldrich bill! Because it was an absolute fulfillment of the Republican campaign promise. How can anyone doubt it. President William Howard Taft has given his word that the revision was downward, and for any of you to take the position it was not downward is to challenge the veracity of the President of the United States."

Mr. Scott said that he considered his address as an official report of the manner in which he had discharged the trust reposed in him by his constituents, and the meeting closed. There had been no symptom of applause in the course of the Congressman's address, but at the close most of the women and a few of the men indulged in hand-clapping, while in the rear two rows of young men beat a tattoo on the floor with their feet with such persistency as to indicate they had been under a course of special training for the event.

Mr. Scott is a talented, highly educated, clear-cut type of man. Why will a man of his qualifications support an aggregation like the Cannon-Aldrich oligarchy, which stands for gang rule and everything that is bad in politics?

Perhaps this is an answer to the query: Mr. Scott is ambitious. By voting as Speaker Cannon directs him, he sees a possible chance of advancing himself. Mr. Cannon has already made Representative Scott chairman of the committee of agriculture, which is a nice berth in itself. And by using all his energy to promote Cannonism and Aldrichism Mr. Scott hopes to be appointed Secretary of Agriculture.

A little want ad. will accomplish big results.

Florida Newspapers Are In Favor of a Convention

The Pensacola Evening News is heartily in favor of a State Democratic convention and believes the holding of such a convention would be the best possible thing for the party in this State. It would serve to bring the various divisions and factions of the party together on a common Democratic footing and would give us a party organization of some strength and cohesiveness—something we now entirely lack.

The News expresses its surprise that certain papers in the State so bitterly oppose the convention. No good reason has ever been given for their attitude and it is to be presumed, their only fear is that a convention would militate against the primary system and threaten its permanence. A State Democratic convention would have very little to do or to say about the primary system, which is a fixture, established by statute. Such a convention would not attempt to nominate a single candidate for office or even to recommend one to the voters. Its purpose would be to adopt a platform and policy for the party in this State, to establish goals and map out a chart for the proper course of the Democratic ship. The Democratic party of Florida is the only Democratic party division in this country which hasn't a vestige of a platform and has no established declaration of policy. The only semblance of organization which it affords is an executive committee, which is rarely heard of and which doesn't maintain an active participation in party affairs except during the progress of a primary campaign. At present the Democratic party of Florida is merely a convenience for office-seekers and Democracy in Florida is only a cloak for the most disgraceful and playboyish variety of personal and "peanut" politics.

Of course, we want a State Democratic convention. The News, by the way, suggests that "it might be interesting to hear from the chairman of the State Executive Committee on this important subject."

Sea Island Cotton Sells For 30 Cents in Savannah

SAVANNAH, Nov. 6.—The Sea Island cotton market has ruled active and very strong the past week and prices advanced rapidly. Quotations for fancy and extra choice are 3 to 3½c higher. As fancy reached 30c a good deal of holding cotton came out, resulting in some increase of offerings and a corresponding lull in the demand, so that the close was quiet. The three lowest grades are nominal, there being no stock.

No change is noted in crop accounts, except that reports from Florida say the ginning is approaching completion. Sales for the week 2,025 bales.

The following prices were based on factors' quotations and are revised weekly on Fridays:

ANOTHER BIG COTTON SALE MADE ON FRIDAY

GAINESVILLE PEOPLE REACH THE HIGH MARK OF 30 CENTS.

J. A. Pearson, Representing a Savannah Firm, Bought Nearly Three Hundred Bales of Staple.

From Saturday's Daily Sun:

There was something doing in the cotton market in Gainesville on Friday, when W. T. Chesnut of Arredondo and Mrs. Lois Tucker of this city sold to a Savannah firm nearly three hundred bales at 30 cents the pound.

J. A. Pearson, a cotton buyer representing the Savannah interests, has been in this immediate section for several days past, and while he had purchased already in other sections a large quantity of the staple, he learned that the above amount could be had at this figure and gladly paid it over for the possession of the staple.

For the past several days B. P. Beville has been buying cotton in Gainesville, paying high prices, and on Friday morning he was offering 29 cents for the staple, without sampling and weighing, in order to complete the amount that he was to have in the above deal.

This is the first time in a number of years that cotton has reached such a high market in Gainesville, and the same conditions will not probably exist again in a number of years unless another rainy season should make a shortage of the crop.

In the above deal there was a number of bales held over from last season, and all of this was included at the 30-cent price, but it would have taken an expert to have told the difference.

There are a number of cotton buyers scattered throughout the county at the present time, and within the next few days it is thought that all the cotton in the county will have passed into other hands, in view of the fact that so many are on the hunt for the staple.

Croup is most prevalent during the dry cold weather of the early winter months. Parents of young children should be prepared for it. All that is needed is a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The passages of the kidney secretions were irregular and when the secretions were allowed to stand they deposited a sediment. My back ached intensely and was very lame and sore, making it hard for me to stoop or lift. I could not rest well and mornings upon arising I was tired and worn out. I at length heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and deciding to give them a trial, I procured a box. This remedy effected a complete cure. ## UNIVERSITY NOTES

From Friday's Daily Sun:

The first collegiate football game of our University was successfully carried through. We feel proud of our team, and hope to see it add victory upon victory to its merited credit. The Varsity team will play Stetson's team at DeLand Saturday. We have faith in our boys and will await their return with pride.

The second team, upon whom the "Pile Drivers" practice their maneuvers, will have a chance to demonstrate its quality in its first game with the Duval High School, at Jacksonville, this Saturday. The University second team will line-up as follows: Jimmie Powers, Capt. and quarterback; T. J. Swanson, right guard; G. Taylor, left half; Pokey Davis, full-back; Fred Pile, right end; Allie Shands, left end; Roeger, right tackle; Ward, left tackle; Willie Robertson, right guard; Loybb, left guard; C. Rush, center.

The University has been presented with a gift of $150 for the improvement of its athletic field.

Professor P. H. Rolfs, director of the Florida Experiment Station, made an eloquent address to the student body in chapel last Tuesday morning upon the "Increasing Agricultural Industries of Florida."

The University has been presented with $750 by the Chamber of Commerce of Pensacola for the support of ten men whom that body will send here from Escambia county to attend a special three-months' course in agriculture, which commences Tuesday. This short course is an exceedingly good one and it should be taken advantage of by all the industrious young farmers of the State.

The University will exhibit mainly from the shop and agricultural departments at the Tri-County Fair, at Pensacola, on the 9th to 12th, inclusive.

At the last meeting of the Athenaeum Club, held at Prof. Vernon's residence, a very interesting paper on "The Exploitation of the Tropics" was read by Prof. Belling.

The law students are making great progress in their debating society. Their next subject for debate is "Resolved, That Women Should Have the Right of Suffrage."

B. B. Barco was promoted to captain of Company A of University Cadets, and Steffie to be first lieutenant.

Major Walker has already distributed the rifles to the cadets of the University.

T. & J. RAILWAY OFFICIALS MET THURSDAY

MANY IMPORTANT MATTERS DISCUSSED FOR GOOD OF ROAD.

Directors Adjourned to Meet in Jacksonville Again Today to Finish Business.

From Friday's Daily Sun.

The annual meeting of the Board of Directors of the T. & J. railway was held in this city Thursday at the general offices of the company, but after a short session the board adjourned to meet again in Jacksonville today.

Among the more important matters discussed at this meeting was the consideration of the road and its rolling stock, and it was decided to at once commence the improvement in order to meet the requirements of the roadway during the coming busy season.

Reports of the affairs showed that it was being handled in a most satisfactory manner, and besides the improvements made, it is being operated in most substantial manner and is proving a paying piece of roadway for the stockholders.

General Manager Glass received favorable mention from the directors for the manner in which he has managed the affairs and brought the road to the front again.

One of the main improvements is a motor car to run between this city and Sampson City to connect with the G. S. & F. railway. The car will be so constructed as to meet all of the present needs in the way of baggage and express, etc.

Nearly all of the directors of the company were present and they departed in the afternoon to meet in Jacksonville today, when the plans for the motor cars will be further discussed, and the manager hopes definitely decided to be in operation within a very short while.

HARTSFIELD-DAVIS WEDDING.

The Albany (Ga.) Herald has the following to say of the recent marriage of Mr. Allie Ben Hartsfield to Miss Florence Davis, which happy event was solemnized in that city on last Wednesday:

"One of the prettiest home weddings ever witnessed in Albany was solemnized last night at seven-thirty o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. George H. Davis, on Pine street, when Miss Florence Davis became the wife of Mr. Allie Ben Hartsfield, of Gainesville, Fla. In the presence of relatives and a few friends the impressive ceremony of the Methodist church was performed by Rev. T. H. Thompson. Miss Ethel Bush of this city, maid of honor, and Mr. Frank Hartsfield, of Gainesville, Fla., best man, were the only attendants.

"To the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by Miss Mattie Bush, the bridal party entered. Miss Ethel Bush, the maid of honor, was first to enter, passing from the parlor into the reception hall and then into the living room. The groom and his best man entered from the apartment on the opposite side of the living room and were met at the altar by the bride, who had entered on the arm of her brother, Mr. O. L. Davis. During the ceremony Schubert's Serenade was played. At the conclusion of the ceremony the young couple were showered with congratulations.

"The bride is one of Albany's most beautiful and attractive young women, and is a graduate of the Albany High School. Several years ago Miss Davis moved to Albany from Camilla, and since that time, when she entered the public schools here, she has been one of Albany's most admired young women.

"The bride was never prettier than last night. She wore a handsome white satin gown with real lace yoke, and circular collar of real lace, trimmed in pearls. The gown was made semi-princess, with small tucks at the waist and paniers of white satin. She wore a spray of orange blossoms in her hair. The bride carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and bride's roses, caught with a shower of embroidered tissue tulle.

Miss Ethel Bush, the maid of honor, was beautiful in a handsome white crepe de chine gown, with yoke of real lace, trimmed in pearls. The gown was made semi-princess, with shirred girdle effect. Miss Bush carried pink carnations and ferns, tied with pink embroidered tissue tulle.

"Mr. Hartsfield, the groom, is a resident of Gainesville, Fla., where he is interested in the wholesale grocery business with his father. He is a young man of sterling qualities and standing high in the social and commercial world of Gainesville.

The young couple were recipients of numerous handsome wedding presents and all during the day were showered with congratulatory telegrams.

"Mr. and Mrs. Hartsfield left last night for Macon, where they will spend a few days at the fair, going from there to Atlanta to attend the auto races. They will spend several days in Jacksonville, on their way home to Gainesville.

Insufficiency of skilled labor to meet trade requirements is reported, and yet the park benches remain comfortably filled. Scientists must certainly be wrong about that hook worm malady being limited to the South, says The Wall Street Journal.

The Miami Metropolis uses the name of Congressman Sabath—we take The Met's word for his being a Congressman, though we never heard of him before—to prove that Frank Clark could not have been re-elected secretary of the National Congressional Committee if he had been a candidate for the place. Short staple cotton is more than 15 cents a pound; at a season when many poor folks—small farmers and tenants—are obliged to sell. This is worth more to the country than 20 cents a pound would be next spring. And cotton seed is selling at 40 cents a bushel. And everything else the farmer has produced is usually high in price. The net profits from the DeBeers diamond mines are said to be about $25 a minute or $36,000 a day. It is estimated that more than $500,000,000 worth of precious stones have been taken from the diamond mines at Kimberley. For many years the sales from these mines have run from $2,000,000 to $30,000,000, and it is reported that the mines seem to be inexhaustible.

Reports from different sections of the State are to the effect that Hon. W. A. Blount made a most favorable impression in his preliminary tour of some weeks ago in the interest of his candidacy for United States Senator, and there is a strong feeling among many people that if Senator Tallaferra is to retire to private life Col. Blount would be a most worthy successor. Senator Tallaferra has not yet made a formal announcement, and his friends are waiting a public announcement from him before committing themselves on the Senatorial question. He has already delayed such an announcement too long for his own good, and if he is not heard from very soon he may find a number of his old supporters pledged to some other candidate.

THE GAME LAW.

For the benefit of strangers and others we again publish the game law of Florida, as is requested by several parties.

The game law makes it unlawful to hunt, kill, chase, molest or have in your possession any wild deer except during the months of November, December or January. Venison or deer hides cannot be sold, exposed for sale or transported for sale.

Persons are prohibited from hunting, killing or having in their possession any wild turkey, quail or partridge except during the months of November, December, January or February, and no person shall kill more than two wild turkeys or more than twenty quail, and no party of two or more persons shall kill more than four wild turkeys or more than forty quail in any one day; no person shall kill more than five wild turkeys in any one year.

The sale of quail, turkeys and partridges is absolutely prohibited, and no person is permitted to ship any deer, deer hide or hides, venison, wild turkey, quail or partridge beyond the limits of the county in which they were killed. Persons may take their game home with them when the same is killed in another county than where they reside.

All persons who are not citizens of this State must pay license of $10 to the clerk of the circuit court before they shall be permitted to hunt in this State, which license is only good for the county where it is issued.

Ducks cannot be killed between the 1st of April and the 1st of October.

It is unlawful to have in your possession, living or dead, or to catch or kill any wild bird other than a game bird, at any time of the year, game birds being particularly designated as geese, coots, plovers, surf birds, snipe, woodcock, sand pipers, tattlers, curlews, river and sea ducks, brant, rails, mud hens, wild turkeys, grouse, prairie chicken, pheasants, partridges, quail, turtle doves, tame and wild pigeons and robins.

PROHIBITION ELECTION.

LaFayette county has been dry for several years and an election is to be held next Tuesday to decide whether existing conditions shall be changed. The campaign is said to have been a "red-hot" one, and much ill-feeling has been engendered between neighbors who expressed opposing views regarding the whiskey question. In fact, it seems that even those who preferred to keep their opinions to themselves have not escaped criticism. But the editor of The Mayo Free Press has withstood the bombardment from both sides and maintained his position of neutrality with a complacency that cannot but be admired. He says:

"It seems to be the idea of some of our patrons and friends that The Free Press should come out on one side or the other in the 'wet or dry' campaign now on in our county. Therefore, we feel that a clear-cut statement of our position would not be amiss; rather that such is due our preference and we have it—and it is readers and the public generally.

"The Free Press will maintain a position of neutrality.

"Because—

"We have friends and patrons on each side of the question now before the people, and while the editor, personally, has his preference, just as has any other citizen, he does not feel that it would be exact justice for the paper to take issue with either side.

"As an individual and citizen we have a right to have our personal opinion on this question, but our intention to vote according to our convictions, uninfluenced by the opinions of others who have no interest in us or with us.

"We desire every citizen of the county to exercise his own judgment in the matter and vote accordingly.

"Though we have been a citizen of this county for a number of years, and all we have is here, we would not presume to advise you; we do not think you need a guardian, or that you haven't sense enough to make up your mind on this or any other matter.

"No, sir, The Press is not the 'organ' of the 'drys' or the 'wets,' but we are trying to do our duty by our patrons and subscribers by publishing a clean, readable, reliable little paper.

A gain of over $2,500 in the amount of receipts is the record of the Pensacola postoffice of business done in the month of October, when compared with the same month of last year.

WHITE MAN ARRESTED FOR SELLING BOOZE

DEPUTY WYNNE SAW TRANSACTION AND GOT THE WHISKEY.

Judge Mason Bound the Defendant Over to Next Term of Circuit Court.

For selling "booze" contrary to the law in a dry county, Ben Styles, a white man of Newberry, was brought here Saturday and given a preliminary hearing before County Judge Mason.

Deputy Sheriff Wynne, who made the arrest and worked up the case against the man, stated that he found some twenty-one quart bottles of various kinds of booze, also eleven bottles of beer, and empty bottles in plenty, which indicated that a most flourishing business was transacted.

After hearing all of the evidence in the case, and seeing the whiskey, Judge Mason bound the defendant over to await the action of Circuit Court which will convene here next week. Bail was promptly furnished by friends and the prisoner allowed to depart.

The deputy states that this is only one of a number of such places that he has long suspected, but it takes time to work up the necessary evidence for conviction, and for this reason he is compelled to peruse this class of violators at a slow rate.

This arrest was made in a "juck" which is operated among a number of other stands located east of the railroad in Newberry, and for a long while the better element of the city have made an endeavor to have them cleaned up from these quarters.

Styles was only released from the pen a few months ago for selling whiskey.

A VALUABLE SUGGESTION.

United States Senator Duncan U. Fletcher has on numerous occasions during his comparatively brief service in Congress given evidence of a resourceful mind and one prolific in suggestions for the public good.

Senator Fletcher's latest suggestion, which is attracting much favorable notice from the press, not only of Florida but of the country, is, in short, that the valuable and expensive machinery which is now being used by the Government in the construction of the Panama Canal be preserved in good condition that, when the canal is completed, it be brought to this country and used in the inland waterway improvements which are to be made, from time to time.

That the adoption of this suggestion will mean a great saving of expense to the Government needs no argument. Surely, machinery of the expensive type purchased by the Government for the canal work, will not be worthless after the present operations are ended. It is, the usual custom to consign such machinery, especially if it belongs to the Government, to the junk-pile—an extravagant feature of public work that has no reasonable excuse. That much of the Panama Canal machinery could be used with advantage and success on other public improvement projects cannot be doubted.

It is pointed out by The Pensacola Journal, in connection with the suggestion of Senator Fletcher, that a considerable portion of this machinery will not be required for the finishing touches on the canal and there is probably some of it that could be transferred now and put into shape for home waterway work. At any rate, the Fletcher idea is worthy of serious consideration by the Government authorities who have charge of that particular department and, if they are actuated by a conscientious desire to save expense, they will take the necessary steps to carry the Florida Senator's suggestions into early effect.—Tampa Tribune.

MARION COUNTY FAIR WILL MAKE SHOWING

NEW BUILDINGS AND ENLARGEMENT OF GROUNDS.

Their Second Show Will Be the Largest and Grandest Ever Seen in Florida.

The buildings and grounds of the Marion County Fair Association are much larger and better this year than ever in the past, and a great many new buildings have been erected for the accommodation of the exhibits, horses, etc., besides two large separate grand stands erected for the people to view the races and other sports inside the large race track grounds.

The white grand stand has recently been added to and is now a building 100x50 feet, while the colored stand is 75x30 feet, both filled with good comfortable seats, and the bleachers alone will accommodate about 1,500 people. The race track has been greatly improved and for the past four weeks the managers of the association have been at work during the day rolling and packing the track, while all night long they keep the city sprinkler at work to make it one of the best tracks to be found in the State, and it has ever since last season been considered the fastest track in Florida.

The agricultural hall is a building 180x40 feet, while the building for the colored exhibits is 40x40 feet, and an additional exhibit space is arranged under the grand stand of 50x100. McIver & McKay have erected a building 40x40 for their individual exhibit, the office building is something like 20x30, and the entire enclosure of the building and grounds will aggregate 75 acres.

This is by far one of the largest sites selected for fair purposes to be found in the South, and with the new and additional buildings erected at a great cost during the past few months, the association will be able to take care of the exhibits and people most admirably.

The coming fair will not be lacking in the amusement feature, for they have contracted with one of the largest amusement concerns in the North for sufficient shows to fill up their large midway, this alone to have a fronting space of something like 3,000 feet.

Ask your agent about the excursion rates to be given to this three days of fun and frolic, and make up your mind in advance to be present at least part of the while and see what is to be shown by Marion county.

OUR OCALA ADVERTISERS.

Attention is directed to the list of Ocala advertisers who have contributed to the upbuilding of that hustling city and made it possible for the Fair Association to receive such liberal advertising outside of their city.

They want to get acquainted with you. Marcus Frank, M. Fishel, Ocala Furniture Company, Knight & Lang, R. E. Young & Son, Commercial Bank, Ocala Gas Engine Works, Z. C. Read what they have to say in their spaces and remember them when you visit the Fair from November 24-26.

There is no reason why we should be surprised when France begins a tariff war and applies the maximum rate on American goods. If we pinch others we must expect them to pinch us.

BOTH FLORIDA TEAMS LOSE OUT SATURDAY

STETSON PLAYED ALL AROUND BOYS BY SCORE OF 26 TO 0.

Even the Jacksonville High School Lads Defeated the Second U. of F. Team.

The University lads were small people in the two games of football played Saturday at DeLand and Jacksonville, for in both instances they were shut out, not even being allowed one score.

None of the particulars regarding the game were learned in this city—only the bare statement announcing the result, and it was rather blue to the many admirers of the University which has made such an excellent start in the athletic line to see them defeated by such an immense score.

Stetson is credited with 26, while the Varsity boys received 0, and in the game at Jacksonville between the second eleven and the Duval County High School the Jacksonville boys were victors by a score of 5 to 0.

There is a return game coming and the consolation is that they will make an even break at this time.

Our Piano Contest still grows in interest. The High School pupils and teachers have taken hold and the people of North Gainesville have entered their hall in the race, so there will be something doing.

GEORGIA TAKES TAFT TO HER BOSSOM

President Is Royally Entertained At All Points Visited In the Guber State.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Nov. 5.—President Taft traveled through central and southeastern Georgia this Indian summer afternoon through woods rich in the warm reds, golds and brown of autumn. He spent the forenoon yesterday at Macon, where he declared he was glad to be back in Georgia again and felt thoroughly at home in the State whence he went to Washington last March to assume the oath of office. The President arrived here at 10:45 o'clock tonight and began his eighteen hours' stay in the city with an elaborate banquet at the DeSoto Hotel. Today the President was taken for a sail over the harbor, a spin around the famous automobile course over which the grand prize races were run last fall, and will have lunch at the Thunderbolt Casino.

Savannah is the farthest South the President will go and when he leaves here at 2 o'clock today he will turn east toward Washington, where he is due to arrive next Wednesday evening.

Georgia has proved no exception to the other Southern States President Taft has visited in extending to him a series of welcomes equal to those he has received in any section of the country. In Macon yesterday morning it seemed as though the country for miles around had been depopulated to make up the throngs that gathered in that city. At every one of the numerous stops between Macon and this city there were large depot throngs out to greet the President and cheer the few words he had an opportunity to utter before the train moved on. Here last night the President was met by another great crowd. During his stay in Savannah, Mr. Taft was the guest of Gen. William W. Gordon, an old family friend.

Governor Brown With President.

Governor Joseph Brown met the President at Macon and made the trip with him to this city. Representative Bartlett also came with the President along with a committee of citizens from this city who went to Dover to extend Savannah's welcome. The President breakfasted this morning at the Bartlett home in Macon, partaking of a spread prepared under the direction of Mrs. Bartlett herself and comprising a list of Southern delicacies that caused the President to declare that if all well-to-do Georgia people breakfasted like that he wondered that such good old institutions as dinner and supper had any vogue at all in this section.

Mr. Taft withstood the temptation, however, of a mint julep that had been brewed with consummate skill and which reposed apparently harmless in a green-topped glass that had perfect barnacles of frosting on the outside. He took the julep in his hand for a moment but that was as far as he got. Waffles, quail, fried chicken, sausage, steak, broiled ham, broiled chicken and "grits" were a part of the breakfast set before the President.

Capt. "Archie" Butt, the President's military aide, an old Georgia boy, was on his native heath yesterday, happy as could be. He had been traveling more than 11,000 miles to reach here with the President, and he enthusiastically asked Mr. Taft yesterday if he didn't think it was well worth the journey to be in Georgia at last. The President graciously agreed and in his speech at the State fair grounds in Macon referred to the fact that he knew Georgia people were all right for he had one for an aide.

Banquet at Savannah.

The banquet in honor of the President was in many respects the most unique and sumptuous that the President has encountered in all his travels. Nearly every course was served on a dish which was taken home by the diners as souvenirs. As the President entered, the 350 guests were standing, waving little silken Presidential flags. At each plate was a gold scarf pin, on which was enscrolled the seal of the city of Savannah. The canape was served on hand-painted china trays bearing the President's initials. Salted almonds were served in individual silver-mounted cut glass dishes. Diamond back terrapin appeared in individual burnished copper chafin dishes, which were souvenirs. Punch was served in silver-mounted glasses; brandy in silver flagstone cups, and cigars in red leather cases—all souvenirs.

As the President arose to speak, twenty white doves were liberated over the heads of the diners. Mayor George W. Tiedeman of Savannah presided at the banquet as toastmaster, and the speakers were as follows:

Address of welcome, Samuel B. Adams; "Georgia," Gov. Joseph M. Brown; "The Army," Col. D. C. Kingman, U. S. A.; "The Navy," Admiral C. S. Sperry, U. S. N.; "Savannah," Judge Walter G. Charlton; "The Press," Gen. P. W. Mildrim; "Woman," Walter O. Hartridge. The President, at his own request, spoke last.

HIGH SPRINGS NOTES.

HIGH SPRINGS, Nov. 4.—Our school is doing nicely under the proficient management of Prof. Guy and his able assistants.

On last Friday afternoon the school rendered a most interesting program, at which time the local W. C. T. U. presented the school with a lovely picture of Miss Francis E. Willard. The presentation speech was made by Capt. T. H. Willard and accepted by Prof. Guy, in behalf of the school.

On Sunday evening at the First Baptist church, the members of the local W. C. T. U. rendered a most delightful program, consisting of temperance songs, recitations, prayer and a talk, at which time eighteen new members were enrolled for the cause of temperance.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Godwin of Fairfield have been in town visiting relatives and friends for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Fuller have returned home from a month very pleasantly spent at Inverness with the latter's parents.

The piano contest closed on Saturday, Oct. 30th, Miss Susie Bryant being the successful candidate. Miss Lillie Morrison won second prize.

Mr. Humphreys returned yesterday from New York, where he was called a few days ago on account of his mother's death. He has the sympathy of our people.

HAD PLEASANT TRIP.

Party Visit Grand Island in Automobile From Gainesville.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Cannon, Mesdames J. L. Medlin and J. B. Dell, Jr., with C. W. Hill in charge of the machine, returned yesterday from a short visit to Grand Island, where they went to take a look at the handsome orange grove property of Mr. Cannon.

The party left Gainesville on Wednesday morning, arriving at their destination in the afternoon, and on the return trip left Euclid at 11 a. m. and arrived in Ocala at noon. After spending a few hours there they resumed the journey to Gainesville, making the trip here in two hours.

Mr. Hill, who had charge of the car, which was an E. M. F. Model 30, states that the entire distance was covered in five hours and twenty-five minutes and the roads between Euclid and Ocala were in bad shape.

The citrus crop at Lakeland is said to be 25 per cent heavier than it was last season.

LIVE 'POSSUMS GREET PRESIDENT AT MACON

The "Big Bill" Smile Made Columbus People Happy When Train Stopped There.

MACON, Ga., Nov. 4.—Complete in every detail and in strict conformity to the President's wishes are the arrangements for his visit to Macon.

Early this morning the Presidential party was met at the Union Station, where the special train is parked, by a number of Macon citizens, who accompanied the President to the residence of Congressman Charles L. Bartlett for breakfast. The Bartlett home has been attractively decorated for the occasion. Mrs. Bartlett was assisted by eleven Macon ladies in receiving the guests in the drawing room. After a brief reception the party was ushered into the spacious dining hall. A feature of the menu was the mint julep, such as has been brewed in the South since Henry Clay's time. On the way to the fair grounds the President was accorded a rousing ovation by thousands of school children stationed at vantage points along the route.

After a short speech the President inspected the agricultural exhibits and displays of woman's work at the fair.

From every section of Central Georgia crowds have been pouring into Macon for twenty-four hours. The welcome extended Mr. Taft is genuinely cordial and decidedly void of formality.

The city's decorations are elaborate and suggestive of "Taft day." A striking feature and one wholly unique is the decorated front of one store on the President's route. On two persimmon trees appear four 'possums, real live marsupials, which grinned their satisfaction at being made the cynosure of the gaze of the President of the United States.

Columbus Surrenders.

Columbus, Ga., Nov. 4.—President

Taft's special rolled into Georgia at 10:10 o'clock last night, reaching Columbus on the dot, and the President was given an enthusiastic reception at the Union passenger station, where a large crowd had gathered, the station being filled.

Mr. Taft promptly appeared on the rear platform and was greeted with rousing cheers. In an eight-minute speech he thanked the people for their cordial reception, expressed his regret that a misunderstanding had arisen as to the length of his stay in this city, made a happy reference to the importance of Columbus as a cotton manufacturing center and expressed his great pleasure at being again on Georgia soil, saying that two of the happiest months of his life were spent in this State last winter.

The President expressed his regret that anyone should think that he violated his pledge in regard to visiting Columbus, but said that it could be readily understood that in arranging a 13,000-mile trip it was not possible to have everything just as desired. There were several cries of "God bless you" from the crowd and a beautiful bouquet of roses was sent to the platform, which Mr. Taft accepted with pleasure "as the first flowers given him in Georgia."

Judge A. W. Cohart, in behalf of the citizens, made a brief talk, thanking the President for his visit and his address, and saying in conclusion: "We assure you there is no city where you have more friends than in this, the city of Columbus." There were renewed cheers as the special pulled out of the station. The stop here was for ten minutes.

Let a want ad. negotiate a trade for you—of something you don't need for something you do.

Census of Manufactures Will Be of Much Value

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 5.—The general schedule which will be used in the Federal Census of Manufactures for the calendar year 1909 has been formulated, and about 700,000 printed copies have been ordered by Census Director E. Dana Durand. The schedule is in the form of a large folder, about 9x11½ inches size. It is smaller and simpler than the ones upon which the 1900 and 1905 census of manufactures were based. It has less than half as many questions for entries as the earlier ones and seems likely to insure less labor and greater accuracy in the collection of the manufactures data.

There are in the general schedule thirteen principal questions, with their subdivisions. This is the same number as in the general schedule for 1900. There are, however, important differences between the two schedules. These comprise, in the 1909 schedule, the new questions authorized by Congress; the elimination of former questions to which it is impossible to give approximately accurate replies; and also the simplification of others and their separation or combination in new forms.

One of the subdivisions of the question relating to power employed for manufacturing purposes calls for the name of the stream or lake from which water is obtained to generate power, whether direct or electric. This information will be valuable in a census of the country's water power plants and operations, in case Congress provides for it later.

Another new question involves the quantity of fuel used, whether anthracite coal, bituminous coal, coke, wood, oil, gas or other kind. This is expected to elicit replies affording considerable data on the fuel conservation question.

The thirteen principal questions are briefly: first, a description of the establishment; second, time in operation and hours worked; third, capital invested; fourth, salaried employees; fifth, wage earners, including piece-workers, on the pay roll December 15, 1909; sixth, wage earners, including piece-workers, employed on the 15th day of each month; seventh, salary and wage payments; eighth, materials, mill supplies and fuel; ninth, miscellaneous expenses; tenth, products; eleventh, power; twelfth, fuel; thirteenth, remarks.

The general schedule, beginning shortly after January 1, 1910, will be circulated among the manufacturers throughout the country by the special agents, of whom about 1,600 will be appointed from the successful applicants at the test examination, to be held November 1st.

National Geographic Society Votes Medal for Peary

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—For having reached the North Pole Commander Robert E. Peary was yesterday voted a gold medal by the National Geographical Society.

The board of managers of the society accepted unanimously the report of its sub-committee of scientists who had examined the explorer's records and proofs and found them to be conclusive of his claim, that he had reached the pole. The society adopted a resolution that the question of whether or not any explorer reached the North Pole prior to 1909 shall be referred to a sub-committee of experts with authority to send for papers or make such journeys as may be necessary to inspect original records. This indicates that the society proposes as soon as possible to pass upon the records of Dr. Frederick A. Cook. The scientists will spare no expense in order that they may be convinced on this point. Dr. Cook will be advised immediately of the society's action.

Two Hungry Bull Dogs Were Guarding Dead Man

SAVANNAH, Nov. 4.—Peter G. Leist, who claimed a dozen trades and professions, but who was a hermit, was found dead at his home near Savannah yesterday. He had been dead since Monday. He was seated in a chair, apparently staring at the wall of his room on which he had written his will, leaving his property, which is considerable, to his son, who is in school at Sharon, Ga., or in the event of his death, to Henry Deeper of Brooklyn, N. Y. Two hungry bulldogs were guarding the dead man and threatened the police with their fangs. A year or more ago Leist's wife killed herself by blowing out her brains with a pistol. He shortly afterwards married again after an acquaintance of eight hours and was at the time of his death seeking a divorce. Since he separated from his second wife he became an absolute hermit, though he had never cared much for the society of others.

MARSHAL DELL PROVES ACTIVE FOR "TIGERS"

MAKES HIS FIRST ARREST FOR OFFENSE TUESDAY EVENING.

Mayor Davis Assessed a Fine of $50
and Costs on the Defendant,
Jeff Simons.

From Thursday's Daily Sun:

City Marshal Dell has gone after the "tigers" and landed his first man on Tuesday evening, when he arrested Jeff Simons, charged with selling booze.

The Marshal stated that he had good reason to believe that a large number of darkies were selling booze in violation of the law and for the past week he kept a close watch-out for this class of offenders.

He has devised a well-laid plan to catch up with this class of people and his first effort worked to suit him, with the result that he was successful in catching the man, not only with the whiskey, but the money and all, and even saw the transaction as it passed.

Jeff was arraigned before Mayor Davis yesterday morning upon the charge and after hearing the evidence in the case, the Mayor deemed that he was guilty and imposed a fine of $50 and costs, but allowed the defendant freedom in order that he may raise the money with which to pay up, and advised him that it would be unsafe for him to appear again under such a charge.

During the years Simons has been here he has been engaged in the fish and oyster business, and at times conducted a restaurant. He has apparently carried himself in an upright manner, and it was this that caused the judge to be lenient with him.

AVERA—ALLEN.

It is doubtful if a more brilliant or more beautiful nuptial scene was ever witnessed in McIntosh—famous for pretty weddings—than was the wedding of last Wednesday evening at the First Christian church when the fair hand of Miss Mary Sue, the pretty and attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Allen, was given in marriage to Mr. Drayton Avera of Gainesville, and these two plighted their troth, each to the other, to love, honor and cherish through life's journey. As the hour of 6:30 o'clock approached the guests began to arrive to witness the wedding and share in the happiness of the young people, and to do them honor.

The girl friends of the bride showed rare taste in their selections of such beautiful palms, bamboo, pot plants and cut flowers, which decorations made the church an appropriate setting to a fairy scene.

Mrs. Fiewellen played the Mendelssohn Wedding March and the bridesmaids, Miss Fanny Allen and Miss Virginia Allen, in beautiful dresses of white lingerie elaborately trimmed with lace and ribbons, entered the church from the left aisle, followed by the bride, Miss Mary Allen, leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. W. E. Allen.

The ushers, Mr. Clark C. Chitty of Gainesville and Mr. Howard Bateson of McIntosh, entered the church from the right aisle followed by the groom attended by his best man, Mr. F. McCook of Gainesville, meeting the bride at the altar, where the beautiful marriage ceremony of the Christian Church was solemnized by the Rev. Mr. Coleman of Ocala.

The bride's exquisite gown was a white crepe de chene elaborately trimmed with embroidered net with ribbons and lace, her veil being of white tulle. She carried a large bouquet of bride's roses.

Immediately after the ceremony the bride and guests repaired to the residence of the bride's parents, where a sumptuous wedding supper was served.

The fair bride is one of McIntosh's most beautiful young women. She has reached young womanhood and numbers her friends by hundreds. She is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Allen, is possessed of a bright mind, and is accomplished in the arts of home and society. She possesses a charming personality and makes with wit and repartee. She is greatly missed by her many friends, and Gainesville, her future home, is indeed securing for herself a great asset.

Mr. Avera is a prominent and successful insurance man of Gainesville and is possessed of all the good traits of a manly man, and will make the young lady who has intrusted her heart and life to his keeping a fit husband and companion.

The young couple left immediately after the wedding supper for Ocala amid showers of congratulations and best wishes. They will visit different points of interest in the State, after which they will be at home to their many friends in Gainesville.

A FRIEND.

McIntosh, Fla., Nov. 4, 1909.

WALDO NEWS NOTES.

WALDO, Nov. 5.—A general fusillade in the woods around town since the morning of the first of the month would seem to indicate that there will be no quail left for seed.

The drouth remains unbroken and the want of rain entails great financial loss to strawberry and truck growers.

The Turner store was sold last Monday for the taxes due for last and this year, but the stock had been so reduced in a bankrupt sale that it brought only fifty-five dollars, which was but about fifty per cent of the amount of taxes. But a half a loaf, etc.

Capt. Alvarez finds hog raising profitable and proposes to enlarge the business.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Tillis are the proud parents of twin baby girls at their home.

A Halloween party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McKewn was a great success. It was given under the auspices of the Epworth League and was largely attended. The devices for the entertainment were ingenious, running from the grotesque to the ridiculous. Only when the cuckoo clock gave out the small hours did the players desist.

Mrs. Temperance Newberry, whose one-hundredth anniversary of her birthday recently occurred, died on the 2nd and was buried on the 3rd inst. The family came from various distances and attended the funeral.

Mr. Tyson, who has been very low with consumption for some time, died near Orange Heights Thursday, having recently moved from Waldo.

The Baptist Sunday School Convention, running three days including last Sunday, was a pleasant and profitable occasion. The pastor, Rev. Green, was sick, but other preachers filled the pulpit and were strong speakers. All other parts were well carried out.

Waldo seems to suffer more than its share in the delinquencies of those who run board, livery, rent and store bills, and then leave for other pastures without settling their accounts. This evil has been seriously felt of late.

Sparkman & Johns have sold their meat market to J. B. Kennard, who is doing business at the old stand.

Weakly Bros. have coupled a meat market business onto their store business.

Berry Cowart was in town selling his sealed syrup and fresh cane juice on Thursday.

Waldo High School now has six teachers, the largest number in its history. The school is prospering beyond all previous records.

PELLAGRA MAY BECOME A NATIONAL SCOURGE

Dr. Zeller of Illinois Tells of Inroads Disease Is Making in United States.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 4.—"While we regard Mr. Rockefeller's princely gift for the eradication of the hook worm at its true value, we say $1,000,000 for the battle against the disease of pellagra would be far more valuable," declared Col. E. J. Watson, South Carolina's commissioner of agriculture, commerce and industries in an address on the economic factors of the pellagra problem in South Carolina. He spoke before the first national conference on pellagra, which opened here yesterday with an attendance of 300 prominent physicians and scientists representing more than a third of the States and the United States Government.

Col. Watson has made a careful study of pellagra because of the generally accepted theory that it is due to the consumption of impure corn and corn products. Unless preventive measures are taken without delay, he said, the corn industry will be seriously threatened. He declared that not only the Federal Government, but the corn-consuming States as well must put into force a rigorous inspection of corn and corn products.

National Scourge Threatens.

In this view Col. Watson has the support of the eminent physicians and scientific investigators attending the conference. All agree that radical measures must be taken, and without delay, to prevent the spread of this disease.

Dr. George A. Zeller, superintendent of the State Hospital for the Insane, Peoria, Ill., views the situation with alarm and in concluding an address telling of the recognition of pellagra in Illinois and the means taken to control it, declared he believed the country is threatened with a national scourge. While the majority of the 5,000 identified cases of pellagra in the United States are in the South, the disease is by no means confined to this section, and Dr. Zeller predicted that it would very soon be as widespread throughout the entire Mississippi valley as in the South.

The discovery of pellagra in the Peoria hospital was made Aug. 7, last, since which time 130 cases have been diagnosed as pellagra, of which number forty-five of the patients have died. There is little hope that the lives of the others can be saved. Another 100 patients in this institution manifest mild symptoms of the disease. This out of a total of 2,150 patients in the hospital.

Hook Worm at Andersonville.

Dr. Zeller is convinced that patients have been dying of pellagra in this institution for years past, without the disease ever having been properly diagnosed. He admitted that patients had died of the disease before its recognition as pellagra in August last, the deaths being either attributed to sunburn or, as in two cases, the scalding of the patients while being given baths.

With the county operation of the Illinois State Board of Health and the surgeon-general of the United States Marine Hospital Service and the army thorough search work has been instituted at the Peoria hospital and at other public institutions in that State. According to reports made by the superintendents of a half dozen other State asylums, similar measures have been taken in these States to combat the disease. And, more important, perhaps, the United States Marine Hospital Service and the special pellagra commission appointed by Surgeon Wyman are already at work investigating the disease.

In the course of his remarks Dr. Zeller touched briefly upon the hook worm, and created a mild sensation when he suggested that many thousands of the Federal prisoners who died in the Confederate stockade at Andersonville, Ga., during the Civil War were victims of the hook worm.

Man Crossed Ocean To Kill the Girl He Loved

BLUEFIELD, W. Va., Nov. 4.—A romance of two continents had a tragic ending yesterday at a coal mining village near here. A Sicilian girl, who had two sweethearts, jilted one and came to America recently to marry the other.

Michaelo Brunilda, the scorned lover, followed. He traced the couple, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Fairdine, from Brooklyn, where they were married on the girl's arrival at West Virginia, where the husband went to work in the mines.

The old sweetheart came here yesterday and found the girl he loved in the home of her husband. He fired at her, the bullet entering her breast.

The woman secured her husband's pistol and fired at Brunilda, wounding him just as her husband entered the door. The latter took the pistol from his wife's hand and killed Brunilda, after firing shot after shot into him.

W. J. Joyner Met Horrible Death at Cotton Ginnery

STARKE, Fla., Nov. 5.—W. J. Joyner, fireman at J. G. Robert's cotton ginnery at Guilford, was killed last Friday by the explosion of the steam boiler that furnished power for the plant.

The accident occurred about 1 o'clock p. m. Mr. Joyner had eaten his dinner and was firing up for the afternoon run. He leaned forward to throw in a stick of wood just as the explosion took place and was blown backwards for a distance of forty yards. His limbs were fractured in several places and he was badly scalded. He lived only four hours after the accident.

The ginnery was badly damaged by the explosion. The boiler turned end for end and shot in under the building, wrecking the structure and tearing down the machinery.

Mr. Joyner, the unfortunate victim of the accident, was for a long time a resident of Lake Butler, but moved some time ago to Guilford, having bought J. H. Scarborough's farm in that locality. He is survived by his wife and five children.

Capt. N. H. Lewis, the veteran section boss of the G. S. & F. railway, who recently was carried to Valdosta to receive treatment in the hospital, died there Sunday. The news of his death was received with sadness by his many friends in Palatka.

George Speer shipped the first lettuce of the season from Sanford during last week.

SPECIAL TRAIN FOR MARION COUNTY FAIR

THE MATTER HAS BEEN TAKEN UP WITH HEADQUARTERS.

Ticket Agent Goodwin Will Use His Best Efforts to Get Special Service.

Local interest is increasing in the Marion County Fair and it is now more than probable that a special train will be run from this city to Ocala during the Fair.

W. L. Denham and others of this city have taken the matter up with Ticket Agent Goodwin and he will at once make requisition for a special train to leave Gainesville about 8 o'clock in the morning, giving the entire day in the Brick City, returning to leave Ocala at about 6 or 7 o'clock.

While every day at the Fair will be interesting, it is thought that the second day will by far prove the most interesting one, for everything will have been placed and in readiness for the great show and the horses will have become accustomed to the track. The track is one of the fastest and best to be found in the State and this feature alone should attract thousands to the Brick City. Some of the best horses on the Florida turf will be seen, besides a large number of outside stock will be there to compete for the prizes offered.

One of the horses that is now spoken of as a great favorite is owned by our former townsman, J. Mason Tison, recently purchased at great expense, and is known as "Lady Lou." In speaking of this fine pacer, the Orlando paper has the following to say:

"The great pacing mare, 'Lady Lou,' property of Mr. O. R. Duckworth, who wintered here last season and won every race with her in which he started at our race meet, has been sold to Ocala parties. This is one of the greatest pieces of horseflesh ever seen in Orlando and the horse that beats her this season will know that he has been in the races. 'Lady Lou' has a record of something like 2:22, but has been miles much faster, working out here this summer a number of times in 2:17, and was not urged. She is game, sensible, quiet and a great road mare, and we congratulate the Ocala parties on her purchase."

The exhibits that will be seen on this occasion will compare most favorably with the State Fair to be held at Tampa later on, while the amusement features are all that could be asked for. The association have contracted with one of the largest concerns in the North to send high-class attractions and the space allotted for their tents will aggregate about three thousand front feet along the great midway.

In visiting Ocala the people will have the opportunity of going and returning the same day if Agent Goodwin is successful in getting the extra service which he is now at work upon.

For this special occasion the city will be gaily decorated, the mayor has ordered a reduction in the hack fares, and by visiting the Marion County Fair you will see a great deal and not be "pulled" as you would to visit other places.

The Fair will be in progress for three days, from November 24-26, and it promises to be the grandest event ever held in Central Florida, and an example that could be followed by many other counties of the State to induce settlers to their respective communities.

WILL TAKE NEW COURSE.

Dr. Geo. S. Waldo Will Install X-Ray in His Office.

Dr. Geo. S. Waldo will leave today for Philadelphia to enter the Medico-Chirurgical Institute, and will be absent for the next few weeks to take a post-graduate course for this class of work, together with the X-ray.

He states that on his return he will install in his office in this city a complete outfit and X-ray coil for the purpose of making skiagraphs and the treatment of certain diseases with the high frequency current.

Mrs. Waldo will accompany him on the trip and following the completion of the course at Philadelphia they will visit the old home of the former's mother in Washington, also New York and Baltimore.

Three Daily Through Trains Between New York And Jacksonville--Other Improvements.

JACKSONVILLE, Nov. 5.—In behalf of the Seaboard Air Line railway, Mr. S. C. Boylston, Jr., assistant general passenger agent, announces for his company a change of passenger train schedules effective noon, Sunday, November 7. With this change they will inaugurate, in connection with the Pennsylvania railroad, a new additional train between New York and Jacksonville, making three daily trains. The new train to be known as No. 93 will leave New York daily at 10:25 a. m., Washington at 4:20 p. m., to arrive Jacksonville 1:30 p. m. This train will be equipped with Pullman drawing-room sleepers operated between New York and Jacksonville and New York and Knights Key sleepers using the Florida East Coast railway from Jacksonville to Knights Key, leaving Jacksonville at 4 p. m.

The Seaboard will continue to operate their through train No. 81, leaving New York at 1:25 p. m., Washington 7:10 p. m., to arrive Jacksonville at 6:10 p. m. This train will be equipped with Pullman drawing-room sleepers between New York and Jacksonville and Tampa. The Seaboard will also continue to operate the Seaboard fast mail, No. 43, leaving New York at 12:10 a. m., Washington 10:05 a. m., to arrive Jacksonville next morning at 7:45 a. m., carrying Pullman drawing-room sleepers between New York and Jacksonville. Northbound, the New York trains will leave Jacksonville at 6:30 a. m., 9 a. m. and 7:50 p. m. Passengers leaving Jacksonville 9 a. m. on the Seaboard Year-Round Limited are scheduled to reach New York at 2 p. m. next afternoon. The Knights Key sleeper will arrive Jacksonville on Florida East Coast railway train No. 82 at 8:30 a. m. and handled through to New York on this train.

The Seaboard Year-Round Limited is a through train and will not handle local travel, local passengers being taken care of on train No. 92, leaving Jacksonville at 6:30 a. m. Train No. 66, leaving Jacksonville at 7:50 p. m., will continue on its present schedule, arriving Washington 8:35 p. m. and New York at 3:53 a. m. New York passengers may remain in sleeper until 7:30 a. m. The New York trains, both north and southbound will be equipped with new and up-to-date Pullman sleepers. All meals served en route from dining cars, service a la carte. The continued increased travel from the East to Florida has made this additional train service a necessity. In addition to this train service on or about January 5 the Seaboard will inaugurate the Seaboard Florida Limited between New York, Jacksonville and St. Augustine, making four daily trains. In anticipation of the heaviest winter travel that Florida has ever had and the desire to handle its patrons with ease and comfort the Seaboard officials have prepared the most expensive and elaborate train service of any preceding year.

South Florida Service.

Train No. 43 will leave Jacksonville at 9:30 a. m. scheduled to arrive Tampa 5:30 p. m., a quickening of the schedule thirty minutes, carrying Pullman parlor car. This train will make connection for Gainesville, Orlando and all points on the Sarasota branch. Train No. 55 will leave Jacksonville at 3 p. m., instead of 2:40 p. m. for Gainesville and Cedar Key. Train No. 81 will leave Jacksonville at 9:30 p. m. to arrive Tampa at 6:30 a. m., carrying Pullman drawing-room sleepers between Jacksonville and Tampa. With this change of schedule the Seaboard will also inaugurate a through sleeper between Jacksonville and Sarasota via Tampa, giving the people at Palmetto, Bradentown, Manatee, Sarasota, and intermediate points the first Pullman service inaugurated into that territory. The increased travel into the Manatee territory by home-seekers and tourists has caused the Seaboard to put this improved service into effect.

West Florida Service.

Train No. 71, carrying through sleeper to New Orleans via Tallahassee and Pensacola, will leave Jacksonville at 7:50 a. m. instead of 7:40 a. m. as at present, while train No. 79 will leave Jacksonville 6:30 p. m. instead of 5 p. m. as at present. Local train No. 60, scheduled to leave Jacksonville at 3 p. m. for Savannah, will be discontinued.

The Seaboard Air Line railway is today in the best physical condition in the history of the property, the receivers having expended large sums of money in improving the roadbed, laying heavier rail and maintaining the property in general. In addition to the Pullman equipment the through trains are equipped with vestibuled coaches and it will be observed that with this change of schedule the Seaboard Air Line railway has not only put on additional train service, but has shortened the schedule between New York and Jacksonville and between Jacksonville and Tampa. This quickening of schedule is due, in a measure, to the improved physical condition of the property, the improved equipment and the first-class locomotives of the Baldwin and Rogers make and are said to be the heaviest type of engines operated in the South.

MELROSE WILL BE GAY.

Further List of Visitors and Attractions for the Season.

Editor Sun: Your correspondent from Melrose in a recent issue, "Gay Winter in Melrose," had the faculty of "sort of" striking a balance between that that is so and what MIGHT be so, that is refreshing; but as he gave down weight TO FACTS perhaps he can be excused after we administer a mild rebuke for his lack of knowledge.

As to the writer being the Dean of Melrose, he lays claim to no such honor. When I made my first visit to Melrose it was THEN Melrose, as it is now—former name "Shake Rag"—so named because of the straight away race course through the town, on which horses were started and timed by the drop of a flag.

Dr. Frank McRae and William H. Lee were then residents who welcomed me then as they do now; so, if DEAN means seniority, the honor belongs to these gentlemen. It is said that "You can't expect much of no one, nor blame him for what he doesn't know," so with this criticism on your correspondent I will dismiss him after noting a few items of news that perhaps has not reached that beautiful hamlet.

In his item of motor boat attractions he forgot to mention that of J. A. Rummel, also that of the Messrs. Shooters, etc.; however, what he named, with a few additions, make quite a formidable fleet for the protection and pleasure of our town. His vocabulary of arrivals for the winter of 1909 and 1910 can be supplemented by adding Dr. and Mrs. Waters and family, J. N. Cole and wife and Mr. Ackroyd and wife of Utica, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. Aubert, Oneida, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. Fred Randall, Ripley, N. Y., Mr. J. A. Cochran, Bayshore, N. Y., Dr. and Mrs. Paxton of Patterson, N. J., who have already made their home there for eight winters; Mr. and Mrs. Williams of Lima, Ohio. And how could he forget Mrs. Orr and Mrs. Treadwell, who are so constant in their attendance that Melrose would not be Melrose if they should fail to come. Then, too, Colonel and Mrs. Tolles and H. B. Tolles and wife, both of whom own cottages.

But no use to enumerate farther, this list is liable to be only a small part of visitors to Melrose the coming season.

TRAINS NOS. 9 AND 10 WILL BE TAKEN OFF

REGULAR WINTER SERVICE EFFECTIVE ABOUT NOV. 15.

Superintendent McArthur is Working for Trains Nos. 9 and 10 to Remain in Service.

The regular winter train service over the Coast Line will be inaugurated by Sunday, Nov. 17th, when trains Nos. 37 and 38 will again be placed in service, and rumor has it that four of the trains now being run will be taken off.

Superintendent McArthur was seen Friday by The Sun reporter and he stated that while this was the general rumor he had heard nothing definite about the matter, and he was urging the continuance of trains Nos. 9 and 10 which run between Jacksonville and Ocala, making it possible to visit the metropolis and return the same day.

It is also understood that passenger trains Nos. 138 and 139, more generally known as the Citra train, will be taken off and the service that is being furnished from the western part of the county will be discontinued.

Some special effort should be made by the Board of Trade in the matter of trains Nos. 9 and 10, if they will want them to run, for while Superintendent McArthur has recommended that they be continued, it is understood that they will be taken off, and we will have only the night and day train, as was formerly given this section during last season.

Ever since the inauguration of the new schedule early in the summer the trains have been most liberally patronized, particularly the Jacksonville train, and at times it handles nearly as much business as trains Nos. 39 and 40. The Superintendent is of the opinion that it will still continue to do a nice business if retained in service.

This train has been quite a benefit to the business interests of Gainesville, for it has brought a large number of early shoppers to the city who could come and spend a half a day here by taking this train, or by taking the noon train could return at night on Nos. 9 and still have time to do their shopping.

IMMENSE SALE OF COTTON AT SANTA FE

THREE HUNDRED BALES SOLD AT 27 CENTS POUND.

Growers "Bulked" Their Product, Giving Authority to One Man to Dispose of It.

SANTA FE, Fla., Nov. 4.—The non-union farmers of this and Bland settlements who are supporters of the Mathews ginners, having the utmost confidence in the ability of Capt. J. L. Mathews to get the best price for their cotton, "bulked" their cotton and gave him the authority to sell as he saw fit, the result being that on the 3rd he sold to the Brantley Company, through Mr. Littlefield, something over 300 bales at twenty-seven cents without cutting, he taking ginner's weights.

They are loading here today. There will be ten carloads or more. This is the second sale this season, two carloads having been sold here before.

Who will say that Santa Fe is not on the map?

JUDGE JESSE T. BERNARD.

The death of Judge Jesse Talbot Bernard at Tallahassee marks the passing of a member of the old guard in Florida life. He was one of the first settlers of Tallahassee, and was familiar with the days when the Indians were hostile and the stage coach afforded the only means of communication between the capital of Florida and the outer world. Those were the days of adventure and rare romance.

Coupled with unusual facilities of observation and memory, he possessed a love for relating the stirring incidents of those early days, and his reminiscences would be valuable contribution to history if they had been preserved. He was frequently offered the opportunity to engage in politics, but his love for the quiet and simpler life moved him to decline all opportunities for preferment, except that as mayor of his town, which he accepted when it was an office that called for more courage than diplomacy. And too, for a time, he served as county judge. He was educated, traveled and well informed. He had acquaintance with the royal ones of Europe and knew their families with a thoroughness that few can boast. He viewed life from a calm perspective of separateness, and conducted his own so circumspectly that he had the love and admiration of everyone in the community where he lived and died.—Miami Metropolis.
